THE REPUBLICAN COUNTY CONVENTION'S NOMINEES.

The Republican County Convention, held in the Wigwam on Wednesday last the 28th ult., put forth a ticket that will not only commend itself to Republicans and command their most hearty and earnest support, but will also command the support of all candid, fair-minded and honest citizens of Centre county.

In these days of political revolutions, when party lines are losing their binding force, we again appeal to the honest voters of Centre county to support such candidates as will ensure the overthrow of corrupt rings; secure the punishment and exposition of defaulting tax collectors, and the collection and appropriation of the people's money.—The election of the Republican candidates now in the field asking the suffrages of the citizens of Centre county, would work a most salutary reform in our county finances and taxation.

The Convention in tendering the unanimous voice of the county in favor of

for Congress, showed its warm appreciation of Centre's native son, Curtin's acceptance of the honor, would meet with the most hearty approval of the Republicans of the 18th Congressional District. In the presentation of the name of George M. Yocum, Esq., to the Conference for Congressional honors, the Convention did no unwise thing, and the act will secure a favorable recognition of Centre county's claim to the candidate. His nomination can be urged because of his personal fitness and qualifications for the office, and because of his personal popularity among all classes of voters, irrespective of party.

JOHN G KURTZ, Esq.,

the candidate for Assembly, is too well known to the Republicans, and all citizens of Centre county, to need any comments from us. As an Editor, he labored earnestly and ably for the good of the party, and, although, independent and fearless, he never permitted anything to sever him from his fidelidy to the people and the party. His fitness for the position, his numerous personal and influential friends, and his own energetic character argue well in favor of his election. In

A. O. FURST, Esq.,

Centre county's choice for a delegate to the Constutinal Convention, we present a candidate whose claims will command a favorable consideration before the Conference that will make the nominations. He is an able lawyer of many years' successful practice; perfectly familiar with the interests of our State, and his integrity of character entitles him to the confidence of all classes. If he should receive the nomination at the hands of the Conference, and be elected, he would make a representave in the Convention, of which our county and district would feel proud.

No other name could have been presented as the Republican candidate for Sheriff that would have excited so much enthusiasm and energy in the ranks of the party, as that of a good soldier, an unwavering Republican, the very embodiment of energy and action, possessed with all the qualifications to fill the office of Sheriff in a most capable and efficient manner. He is the very man for that position, and his nomination carries with it all the elements of success. We expect to see Miller edge Shaffer out, and if anybody can, Levi is the man.

In the nomination of

for Prothotary, the Convention did a most worthy act. In conferring the honor upon him, it gave honor to whom honor is due. A soldier who bears with him the mark of his devotion to his country's cause; a man of high attainments, the acquisitions of his own personal efforts, and of fine address, he is doubly deserving of the honor. His qualifications for the office are the most fit in every particular, and his nomination appeals to all honest citizens for their support and suffrages. In selecting him as candidate for Prothonotary, the Republican party made a move in the right direction, by taking her best men to fill responsible positions. We believe the voters of Centre county will do an act of Justice, and in so doing, guard their own interests by electing Prof. Henry Meyer Prothonotary in October next.

JOHN I. THOMPSON, Esq.,

of Huston twp., our candidate for Commissioner, is a man who only need be named in order to be known. That he would make a most efficient officer, no one for a moment could doubt. And there is one thing certain, if the voters and taxpayers of Centre county will elect John I. Thompson, Commissioner, there will be less absorption of the people's funds in jail contracts, and a fewer number of defaulting tax collectors to hold $30,000 of the taxpayers' money that should have been paid into the county Treasury, two years or more ago.—Tax-payers, for once, look to your interests, and irrespective of party, work a good reform by hoisting John I into the Commissioners office in October next.

The rest of our ticket—

HENRY ECKINROTH, for Register,
Col. ANDREW GREGG, for Recorder,
WM. J. THOMPSON, for Auditor, and
Dr. C. P. W. FISHER, for Coroner,

are all well known in the county, as ably qualified to fill the respective positions for which they are named. And what we have said of the others we could but repeat in regard to them. But suffice it to say that the whole ticket is one that not only commands the undivided support of the Republican party of Centre, but the personal effort and action of each individual member in order to secure its election. So, let the ball begin to roll, and the effort put forth, and the result in October, will be hailed as an auspicious day for the citizens and taxpayers of Centre county. The Ring will be discomfitted, efficient men put into office, and defaulting tax collectors tremble.

ANDREW G. CURTIN.

The miserable scribler attached to the Philadelphia Press is at his trick again. This time he assumes to decide what Governor Curtin will do when he returns to Pennsylvania. He will support Grant and Wilson, but he will not, under any circumstances, be coerced into sustaining the "rings" to "the extent of supporting their guilty tools for Governor and Auditor General." Now it just amounts to this, that the Press writer dreads the appearance of Governor Curtin in Pennsylvania. He knows no more about the position the Governor will take than the bootblack on the corner, but he wants to send the impression abroad that he is in the Governor's confidence, when he is the last person to whom the Governor would be willing to entrust his opinions.

We do not make any professions to know what Governor Curtin may, or may not do, but this one thing we will guarantee, that he will not be found with the editor of the Press working for the election of Charles R. Buckalew and Wm. Hartley. His record does not warrant the gratuitous assumption of the Press. Probably the editor believes that what he says will have its influence on Gov. Curtin, and that he is not aware of the contemptible attitude which it bears in the estimation of the great Republican party of Pennsylvania. In this he is mistaken. The unenviable reputation of that paper is as well known to Governor Curtin as it is to the people at home, and he is just as fully informed of the loss of whatever influence it ever had as are they.

He is not the man to sacrifice principle and honor, as Forney has done, to gratify personal malice. He looks alone to the welfare of the State and the preservation of the great party of which he has ever been so illustrious a champion, and which aided by his own counsels and indomitable energies saved the Republic in its hour of danger from dismemberment and final ruin. We are willing to await his arrival at home when we doubt not he will announce to the satisfaction of his thousands of personal friends and the Republican party, the position which he has determined to take in the State campaign. Until then it will be well for Forney to venture no more gratuitous information as to what he will or will not do.

The soldiers of Pennsylvania have a deep love for their great war Governor, and they have the confidence now in his fealty to the Republican party that they had in his unwavering loyalty to the Union in the dark days of the rebellion. They knew him then as the soldiers' friend, as proud a title of nobility as ever was conferred upon any man living or dead. They are to-day marching shoulder to shoulder in the grand campaign which is to elect a gallant comrade, and an honest man, Governor of the State, over the Democratic candidate, whose character is blemished all over with the stains thrown upon it by treasonable affiliations. For Forney to announce that Gov. Curtin will assist to elevate Buckalew to the Gubernatorial chair, is to reflect upon his past glorious reputation and his unflinching loyalty in the presence of open-handed rebellion in the South and sneaking treason in the North.

NAILING A LIE.

The Pittsburg Post professes to be a respectable journal. Daily in its columns are homilies on honesty, and all the virtues, always including particularly that one great commandment of the Decalogue, Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor. Were its readers debarred the privilege of other channels of information than its own, hey would be led to infer that whatever appeared in its columns was truth and nothing but the truth. Unfortunately for it, the community in which it lives, moves and has its limited being, cannot be misled by what proves to be either deliberate falsehoods or perversions of truth. Lacking argument to attain its ends, it is forced to fall back upon the weapons of all rogues when brought to bay by the irresistible conclusions of truth, prevarication and false witnesses. This is patent to all who read it, in the light which is thrown about it to its daily exposure and humiliation, were it possible for it to be humiliated.

As evidence of what we have already said, we refer to the base calumny, which the Post published a few days since with an editorial introduction, written by one "Rev." Charles Wheeler Denison—we give the fellow the benefit of his full name, as it is well that people should know it, since he travels considerably on his face and shape. This 'Rev." gentleman charged that President Grant was a common drunkard, and to give his charge a semblance of truth, said that in a conversation with Senator Wilson the latter remarked, "President Grant drinks too much. I have told him so," and Denison continued, "Senator Wilson will not deny this." The letter containing this assertion occupied nearly a half column, and is full of bitter, vindictive malice, composed alone as a political document in the interest of Greeley, and primarily suggested because of the President's refusal to listen to Denison's persistent and annoying appeals for office. Yet the Post and other Democratic journals are copying, it, notwithstanding that it bears the lie upon its face, with the hope that it may answer the object of the writer and injure the President in the estimation of some who may not perceive the falsehood.

Senator Wilson was challenged to deny the remark accredited to him, and he has done so in terms so forcible that any other person than this "Rev." Denison would be crushed beneath the denial. In his reply to the miserable libeler, the Senator says: "I do deny in the most emphatic language that I ever said anything of the kind to you or anything that resembled it. Your statement is unqualifiedly false. During the last nine years I have seen General Grant hundreds of times. I have seen him in his camp, in his family, at his own table, at the tables of others, at home and abroad and I have never seen him under the influence of intoxicating liquors." Now this is putting the question in plain, positive words and shape. Here is a flat denial from Senator Wilson, who Denison said would not deny his assertion, and the very "Rev." sorehead reformer stands before the country a convicted liar, a bearer of false witness against his neighbor.

As the Post published the falsehood, we will note whether it will yet give Senator Wilson's denial a place in its columns. His letter was received in this city on Thursday night by the papers, and appeared the next morning among their telegraphic news, but the Post kept it out of its columns, although telegraphed from Boston by the Associated Press as news matter. Whether there is anything honorable in pursuing such a contemptible course or not, the community must judge. Denison's libel has been started on its way, and from now until the election will serve the Greeley journals with capital to be used against the President. To them it matters not whether it has been proven false. To Denison it is the gratification of revenge and hatred. To the people it is but another proof that calumny like this must sooner or later be exposed in all its hideous deformity, and that Truth will eventually "Put in every honest hand a whip,

To lash the rascal naked through the world."

GENERAL ALLEN VINDICATED.

As the Democratic papers are sorely exercised over the prospect of Hartley being terribly beaten by General Allen, and as they continually charge the Republican candidate with dishonesty, which none but knaves will assert, we copy the following resolutions, framed and passed unanimously by a Democratic meeting in Warren county, on the evening of the 24th instant. David Beatty, Esq., presided, with Mathew Simpson, as Vice President, and Jacob Offerlee and Theodore Hull, Secretaries, all well-known and influential Democrats. The resolutions passed without a dissenting voice are as follows:

Resolved, That we, life-long Democrats of Warren county, and neighbors of General Allen, do most cheerfully bear testimony to his excellency as a citizen, and most decidedly dissent from and disapprobate the slanders being hurled against him by the partisan press. Knowing him from his boyhood, we do not credit the charges made against him, but believe them the off spring of political malice, and disappointed ambition.

Resolved. That while entirely differing from him in politics, and being in favor of Greeley and Buckalew, we do feel that political success should not be obtained at the price of the fair fame of any candidate, and we therefore express our sentiments most fully, and as we think in the most Democratic manner, when we say that trumped up charges unsubstantiated by any evidence, are not and ought not to be considered as of any value whatever, against any candidate, but in the case of General Allen it is most especially unjust, as without money or influential friends, he has risen to distinction, and his whole life has proven his energy, his ability, and his fidelity to every trust or business which has been placed upon him or in which he has been engaged. He is almost the first in every charitable enterprise; and is emphatically the poor man's friend.

Resolved, That in giving expression to our sentiments, we believe there are hundreds of our neighbors who will agree with us, and who, while repudiating the calumnies heaped on General Allen, will vote the balance of the Democratic and Liberal ticket, from President down to county auditor.

Such is the testimony of General Allen's Democratic neighbors, and it outweighs all the contemptible and malignant efforts of the Greeley papers to injure him in the opinions of all right-minded men. If it were possible for Democratic editors to appreciate their own littleness and meanness in the estimation of the people, they would slink abashed before the withering reproof administered them by the members of their own party in Warren county. But they will shut their eyes to this evidence from honest men who have known Gen. Allen from childhood, and having a stock of falsehoods on hand, will persist in using them until the close of the campaign. With their willing ally, Forney, they may heap abuse and slanders upon him from this time until then, but it will be filth thrown in vain. They cannot befoul a character so clean, a reputation for integrity so irreproachable, and a record so honorable. The people of Pennsylvania cannot, will not elect a man like Hartley, the friend of the rebellion and the close sympathizer with red-handed treason. They want honest, efficient and loyal men in the high offices of the Commonwealth, and they will choose to fill them, in October, Generals Hartranft, Allen and Ulysses Mercur by crushing majorities.—Pettsburg Dispatch.

THE Boston Pilot—which ought to be good authority with all Catholics—has been investigating the charge of Know-Nothingism which has been preferred against Henry Wilson, the Republican candidate for Vice President. The editor has been able to find nothing to justify the accusation, except the fact that Mr. Wilson received a few votes for Governor in the Know Nothing Convention, and declined the nomination. The Pilot arrives at this conclusion:

"If Mr. Wilson uttered these things in 1854, the Pilot did not say anything about it, which surprises us. We are, therefore, inclined to believe, whether Mr. Wilson was a Know Nothing or not, that these alleged quotations are manufactured as campaign documents, and unusually dirty campaign documents, at that."

Will Hon. P. G. Meek Editor of the Democratic Watchman publish the above from the Boston Pilot and thus show that he is not all-together given over to hardness of heart and reprobacy of mind; Now Gray do the fair thing once in your life.

WE learn that the Congressional Conference of the 18th District will be held on Thursday, Sept. 12, at Williamsport, Pa.

INDIAN MASSACRE IN PENNS VALLEY, 1778.

In an old letter, dated May 9, 1778, from "Old Town Juniata," now Lewistown, Arthur Buchannon then stationed at that point, writes to George Stewart, the sub-Lieutenant of Cumberland county, that he had just received by Robert Moore, the express rider, a letter from Capt. Bell stationed at Bald Eagle, stating that Simon Vaugh, one of his company was killed on the 8th inst. at the house of Jones Davis on Bald Eagle Creek; Robert more being sent off express to inform me of what had happened came through Pennsvalley and stopped at the house of Jacob Standford to feed his horse when he found Stanford killed, and seeing no one about the house, he immediately rode off. On the 11th Buchannan writes again that another express had come in from Major Miles in Pennsvalley, which informed him that on last Friday, Jacob Stanford, his wife and daughter were inhumanly killed and scalped, and his son a lad of ten or eleven years of age is yet missing. Col. Samuel Hunter writes from Sunbury, on the 14th, that he had received an express on Monday, informing him that the Indians had killed and scalped one Jacob Stanford, his wife and two children, being all that was of the family.

I have not been able to ascertain where Jones Davis' house was on Bald Eagle Creek; but in a conversation with Christian Dale, Sr., he told that his father Henry Dale, who was one of the first settlers in the Valley, came to Standford's house while the bodies of the dead were still warm, that pursuit was made of the Indians who crossed the seven mountains; that in crossing one of the streams one of their number accidentally shot himself and in their haste to get away they deserted him.

Henry Dale assisted in burying the dead at Stanford's. Christian Dale says there were four of his family, or four altogether murdered; differing from the statement in the letters. Ephram Keller's farm three miles west of the Old Fort, was the scene of this massacre and the dead are buried in a corner of one of his fields, where their graves may still be seen. Robert Moore the express rider lived up about the end of Nittany mountain many years afterwards and no doubt his descendants are still in the county.

Respectfully, &c.,

JOHN B. LINN.

THE WINE CUP.

ADVICE TO YOUNG MEN AND AMERICANS

BY MISS EMMA P. BARR, BOALSBURG, PA.

If you would be a man and a patriot, and a christian; if you fit yourselves for the largest employments and the most responsible positions; if you would attain competency, and with it unfold a character that your fellow-citizens shall delight to honor; if you would enjoy the serene pleasures of domestic life, and plant no sting in the bosoms of those who love you most dearly, then dare to resist this tempter, whatever form he may assume, whatever disguise he may wear. If the highest in station in the land should seek to draw you off from this high position; yea, if she who seems to you the fairest and purest of her sex, commends this poisoned chalice to your lips, then, in all the confidence of rectitude and intelligent principles, refuse the offer, and prove yourself truly brave as free.

Around us intemperance is working out the ruin of hundreds of the young and the noble. In the wine party and the club room, it begins to throw around multitudes, the silken net of its enchantment. In restaurants and saloons these cords are transmuted into chains of brass, and ere they, or their friends, are aware, they have lost the confidence of employers, they are marked as men to be shunned; they are fast descending to the gross sensuality of the doomed and lost inebriate. If any of you have begun to form this terrible habit and feel a thirst for this poisonous stimulous; if you find the fondness for this fatal indulgence growing, and your feet at stated times seeking the haunts of intemperance, and you begin to comfort yourself with, the deceptive argument that you are only a moderate drinker, to you, I say with the deepest solemnity, turn! TURN!! TURN!!!

Mad swimmer! Already thou art in the frightful water. Round and round it has borne thee, till, intoxicated with the pleasure, thou seest not how the circle narrows and stealthily moves the nearer the liquid sides of the foaming abyss.

OUR LITTLE ONES THAT SLEEPETH.

BY SHABY.

Looking out across the hills are the white marbles and the little green hillocks that mark the silent sleeping places of our dear dead. The little brown mounds are more frequent in the Cemeteries, and sad processions have of late, with slow and mournful frequence wound up the hills to the resting place, where the earth, cradles without rockers, lie silent and still in the shade of the green stretching boughs, and the tall singing pines that watches over each little grave, whether marked with marble or a gray stone. Like their blessed Giver they are no respectors of persons and there is no thought which gives my heart more joy, when I look around amongst the little mounds and think that no matter how hard and humble their lot may have been here, in the blessed mansion to which our little lambs have gone, the humblest will receive just as bright a crown of rejoicing as the best cared for while here on earth. Love for the little ones is all the world round the same. The humble toiling Mother loves her little helpless burdens just as tenderly as those clothed in velvet and gold. Hearts are in us all and no costly weaving makes love the less, or more. Brown hands can build castles in the air as deftly as white fingers, and feel an equal sorrow at their wreck.

The tiny soul buds just softening and swelling in the Sunshine of parental love, just throwing the dimpled tendrils around our necks, and lisping sweet broken sylables in our ears, or with scorching heat of Summer swept away and hidden in the grave.

There are the empty chairs, the silent rooms, the little dresses which our darlings used to wear, and the crumpled shoes that will be pressed no more with pattering feet—these all, fill our minds with sad remembrances of the happy hours when the now closed eyes, danced with wonder and love at each fresh sight of the mysteries around them. But think how full of pleasantness the little lives have been! The ring of their tiny years has been planted all around with love and blossoms, the scent of the rose and lilly. The memory of caressings that in after years forgotten by us in our burden of cares, will still linger sweet in the memory of the dear ones, and be carried with them to Heaven, from our Paradise to another, from this where shadows will sometimes drive away smiles to where there are no shadows and where sorrow never comes.

Sad it is, to die young! Is it not sader still to die in middle age, or even when old? How many there are that have babes that never grow up, that live life long in the memory as the little ones that never wondered away from our love till we smoothed down their brown glossy curls and closed their dear loving eyes—eyes that are never to look upon us again while clothed with this corrutible body. Then we look on them as they lie sleeping in their little coffins and remember them as babes and they never grow old; but their faces always wear the smiles of infancy and purity. And as we lay them beneath the green sward of the Cemetery we know that an unheard voice has called them and that Angels are shouting in glad delight that another Angel is born in Heaven.

"Sleep darling sleep; cold rain shall step.
Thy little turf made dwelling,
Thou wilt not know so far below
What winds and storms are swelling.
And birds shall sing in the warm spring,
And flowers bloom about thee;
Thou wilt not heed them Love; but Oh!
The loneliness without thee."

PICNIC.—A Sunday School picnic was held on Saturday, August 30th, in the grove just below Unionville. A general invitation was given so that all wishing to attend could do so. Although the weather was not very favorable, yet quite a large number present, and amused themselves in swinging, kissing the ring, and wound up in the evening with a tub race—prize, a box of cigars, but the gentleman couldn't smoke them.

BELLEFONTE, PA.

Wednesday Morning, Sept. 4th, 1872.

CHECKMATED.

Horace Lovespree was not of very prepossessing appearance. His eyes were heavy and his manner sluggish. There was no life about him, and his features were not well formed; nevertheless the ladies all smiled upon him, for he was very rich, and those fair ones who were of a marriageable age would have been glad to become his wife. Horace was inclined to be a loafer. If he had not been too lazy, he would have been excessively wicked. As it was, he lacked the spirit, not the inclination.

He lived at home in the family mansion, and had a latch-key. At all times of night he tumbled in, much to the scandal of his aristocratic mother and sister Ada.

One day Horace met Ada in the hall. He smiled good-naturedly. That was such a nonsensical proceeding that she knew "something was up."

"I say, Ada," he said, "who's that girl you had sewing for you yesterday?"

"Lettie, we call her," was the reply. "Lettie Carroll is her whole name, I believe. Why do you ask?"

"O, nothing. Pretty girl, isn't she?"

"I don't know—rather coarse, I think."

With this the brother went out.

The fact was, that in his lazy way he had been quite smitten at sight with Lettie, glimpses of whom he had caught the day before in his sister's room. Lettie was indeed a pretty girl, but her beauty was of a "loud," bold type. Her figure was round and plump, but she tried to give it an additional charm by exposing it to the utmost. The heat of the weather was an excuse for shoulders covered only by the thinnest muslin; while the way in which she drew her breath made one suppose her inward warmth was quite as oppressive as her outward. All this, however, rather attracted than repelled the not too refined taste of Horace.

The next day he made it convenient to saunter into Ada's room, where Lettie was at work. He stared at the seamstress a few minutes, mostly when his sister was not looking, and finally concluded that Lettie was a "deuced pretty girl." So enamored of her charms did he become, that a sly wink conveyed to her the fact; and she seemed rather pleased at the demonstration, replying with sundry ogles behind her employer's back.

The flirtation went on uninterruptedly, for Lettie had now become a permanent fixture of the Lovespree mansion, and at the end of two or three weeks they had got to be on quite good terms. Their meetings, to be sure, were haphazard and brief, or else in the presence of Ada; but for all that they managed to flirt furiously.

One day Horace Lovespree sat in his room, smoking and thinking of the fair Lettie. A rap at the door aroused him. In response to his "come in," no less a personage than the divinity herself entered, and with affected little steps tripped up to the young man, who patted her lovely dimpled arm, bared by the wide sleeve, and gazed upon her in lazy admiration. He looked tenderly at her, without altering his comfortable position, and she looked quite as ardently at him. Her hand unconsciously strayed to his shoulder, but when he threw his arm around her waist, it made every sign of passing itself around his neck.

"Do you know that you are a deuced pretty girl?" he said, pulling her down on his knee.

"It wouldn't become me to dispute your taste, sir."

And Lettie simpered, but did not blush a particle.

"Then don't dispute it, for it's the solemn truth. Give me a kiss."

"No, I won't."

"Then I'll take it."

"If you do I'll scream."

A sounding smack, full on her red lips, followed, and yet she did not scream. Possibly she forgot it, but at that moment Ada's voice was heard calling Lettie.

"Let me go!" exclaimed the pretty seamstress; "don't you hear your sister calling me. She sent me to tell you that she wanted to see you before you went out."

Another hurried kiss, and Horace was left with his pipe.

One afternoon, a week or so after this episode, Ada and Lettie were alone.

"I wanted to see you particularly this afternoon," said the mistress.

"About the blue satin for the ball?" was the reply.

"No, not that"—and Ada's keen glance seemed to read the girl. "I wanted to talk to you about my brother."

Lettie turned as red as a full-blown rose but said not a word.

"There is something between you," continued Ada. "Don't deny it, for I have been watching you both. Tell me all about it."

Thus adjured, Lettie essayed to speak.

"Well, Miss Ada," she faltered, her accustomed boldness for the moment deserting her, "he asked me to marry him."

"To marry him?" exclaimed Ada.

"Yes, Miss, to marry him. It's the truth, and I'm not deceiving you a bit, Miss."

"And what did you tell him?"

"Why, Miss Ada, what should a poor girl like me do when such a good chance comes to her?"

"Then you said yes?"

"Of course."

"And do you suppose he really intends to marry you?"

"Certainly," and Lettie tossed her head.

"He intends nothing of the kind, and you are a foolish girl to think he will. I know him, and you will do well to heed my advice. Have nothing to do with him."

At this Lettie began to cry. To see all her air castles suddenly vanish was too much, and she blubbered like a baby.

Ada pitied the disappointed girl, and resolved to teach her brother a lesson. Ada was a lovely little girl, possessing a plump form, with dark hair, banded back in shining braids from a faultless outlined face, and black eyes that were usually luminous with mischievous mirth. Now, however, they flashed with indignation.

"Say nothing to him of what I have said you," said Ada, "And we will see what can be done."

That night Horace had a call from a friend, a certain scapegrace named George Peyton, and instinctively Ada guessed that his visit had something to do with the matter in hand.

From the room in which they sat a closet communicated with a room in the rear, and in it Ada esconsed herself to listen. Her eavesdropping did not prove vain. From the conversation between the two young men, she learned that her brother meditated a villainy blacker than even she, knowing him as well as she did, supposed him capable of.

The plan which she heard advanced, and which made the blood grow hot with indignation, was as follows:

Horace was to take Lettie to a certain house of unquestionable odor, a parlor in which had been engaged for the purpose, the dupe being made to believe it was the residence of a clergyman. George Peyton, properly costumed, was to personate the preacher, and perform the mock ceremony. The next evening was the time decided upon for the outrage, the perpetration of which was so coolly discussed.

Ada listened until they had settled all the details and gone out. Then she retired to her own room to think the matter over—to devise some plan to make the loafer brother ashamed of his miserable plot. As for George Peyton, she knew him to be a penniless miscreant. Horace Lovespree allowed Peyton to prey upon him, but he had the sense to see through him. He knew that Peyton made money out of him, but then, on the other hand, the fellow was of use to him. Every man likes to have a gentlemanly sort of follower, who will do his bidding for a few dollars. It flatters his vanity. It is a sacrifice at the shrine of his idol, which is laziness. Therefore Horace tolerated George, and even liked him.—Ada went to bed, but did not sleep a wink until she had matured a counterplot. Having perfected it in her own mind, she went to sleep and dreamed of its successful issue.

On the following day she held a consultation with Lettie, whose wounded vanity made her anxious to accept any plan that would gratify her spite against her dishonorable lover.

During the day, Horace seized the first opportunity to speak with Lettie alone. The pretty needlewoman gave him no cause for suspicion. She returned his kiss with perfect sangfroid, only repulsing him when he seemed inclined to take too many.

"Not so fast, sir, if you please," she said, knitting her brows in a frown of mock displeasure. "Wait until we are married before you are so free."

"Then I'll not have to wait long, Lettie," said Horace, passing his arm around her plump waist, "for the ceremony shall be performed this very night if you say so."

Lettie affected the utmost delight, and promised to be ready at the proper time.

"We must be very quick about it," explained Horace, "because Ada mustn't get wind of it on any account." You be ready at precisely nine o'clock, and slip out of the rear door into the yard. At the alley gate I will be waiting with a carriage. Give me another kiss, and then run back to your work."

At nine o'clock in the evening a close carriage was driven up to the rear of the Lovespree mansion. In its darkest corner sat Horace.

An instant later a muffled figure stole out of the house, and approached the vehicle.

"Is it you, Lettie?" questioned Horace, as he extended a helping hand. "Give me a kiss."

The smack of meeting lips was heard as the carriage rolled quickly away. A few minutes brought it to the house in question, and Horace led the still muffled figure into the well-lighted parlor, where George Peyton awaited them in clerical black.

"We are all ready now," whispered Horace.

"Shall I have to take off my veil?" was the rejoinder, in a low whisper.

"No—that don't matter," said Horace, as he led the way up in front of the bogus preacher.

Peyton read the regular marriage form of the Methodist Church, which requires only brief responses, and it was quickly over. At its conclusion Peyton retired, leaving the couple alone together.

"No counting the kisses now," cried Horace, exultingly.

"No, take jist as many as yer wants ter," was the reply, in the unmistakable dialect of a New York gamin, as the supposed victim threw aside the veil and cloak.

Horace turned white with anger and surprise, for before him, instead of the plump and pretty Lettie, stood a freckled, snub-nosed, red-haired boy of sixteen.

"You young devil," said Horace, choking with rage, "how dare you?"

"O, I ain't afeared," was the undaunted reply. "If yer wants to fight it out, just sail right in. I got five dollars for doing this, and I've done it up 'cording to orders. And here' a letter for yer."

Horace took the note, and read:

"BROTHER HORACE:—Let this be a lesson for your future guidance.

"Your loving sister,

"ADA."

He tore up the sheet and looked around for the boy, but the urchin had slipped out."

WHILE Gen. Hartranft and his heroic Boys in Blue were at the front baring their breasts to the rebel bullets and rebel steel, Chas. R. Buckalew had not a word to say from his seat in the United States Senate in compliment or encouragement of those brave men from his own State. Mum it was with him. Like one dumb, he sat, voting against every prominent measure looking to the suppression of the rebellion, and secretly acting in sympathy with its friends in the North. All that he may say cannot efface the record made by his votes while a member of the Senate. All the apologies he can make will not destroy the fact that he was in accord with the "insurgents" who were drilling in his own county to resist the draft. If he was the patriot he professes to be, why did he not exert his influence on behalf of the Government with these men and advise them to submit quietly to the laws of the land? This he did not do because it was not in his heart to perform so patriotic an act. To-day he craves the suffrages of Pennsylvanians, and makes tame explanations of his position at that time. Who is the choice of the people of our commonwealth; the man with such a record, or the gallant soldier, Hartranft, who left home and its comforts to give, if need be, his life, in defense of the Union which Buckalew's Southern friends were trying to destroy?

Another Open Letter to Mr. Buckalew.

HIS CONSTANT ENDEAVORS TO THWART THE GOVERNMENT AND SERVE THE REBELLION.

To Hon. Charles R. Buckalew:

Sir—Please excuse me for troubling you again. Among the manifold annoyances which, just now, disturb your well-known love of ease and repose, you will find that your surprising attempt to rest your vote, on the gold amendment, from its palpable intent and purpose—will likely prove the most damaging and disastrous of all these disquieting elements.

In my letter of yesterday, I stated that you had omited (strangely enough) to mention to your Lancaster audience the name of the Senator who, on the 17th of May, 1864, offered the amendment "to pay the soldiers in gold." Who was it? Look at that portion of your speech in which you laud yourself to the skies for your vote on the great army appropriation bill, and you will see the solitary "Nay!" Yes, it was Mr. Powell, of Kentucky. You should have stated the fact; and you ought not to have neglected to give the vote on his amendment—yeas, 6; nays, 23; the others absent. You said "aye," with Powell, Davis and three others. Such Senators as Henry Wilson, Sumner, Anthony, Chandler and Morrill said "no."

It should be remarked that you appeared to have had a great relish for voting with Garrett Davis and his colleague, Powell. And this is all the more noteworthy when it is remembered that Garrett Davis was then under the ban of a resolution seeking his expulsion, for advising the people "to treasonable, insurrectionary, and rebellious action against the Government of the United States.

On the contrary, upon trying questions—vital points—you seemed to evince a vast repugnance toward the support of measures advocated by the Chairman of the Military Committee, Henry Wilson—measures of the administration, and necessary to the prosecution of the war. There is a maxum, the truth of which you will hardly deny, "Tell me the company you keep, and I will tell you what you are."

In this manner, sir, was the amendment voted down. Remember that the bill then before you was No. 145, "to equalize the pay of soldiers in the United States army," and so to equalize that colored troops should have same pay as the others. Just the day before, to wit, the 16th of May, 1864, the same bill pending the pay of the soldiers, on motion of Henry Wilson, was increased from thirteen to sixteen dollars, but without any call for the yeas and nays. I do not know how you voted, for there is no record. But I do know that instantly after Powell's gold amendment was voted down as above, that gentleman moved to insert the following: "Provided, that the provisions of this act shall not apply to colored soldiers."

Mr. Hendricks called for the yeas and nays, and they were ordered; and being taken, resulted—yeas, 5; nays, 25; as follows:

Yeas—Messrs. Buckalew, Davis Hendricks, Powell and Richardson—5.

Nays—Messrs. Anthony, Chandler, Clark, Collamer, Conness, Dixon, Doolittle, Foot, Foster, Grimes, Harlan, Harris, Henderson, Howard, Howe, Johnson, Lane of Indiana, Lane of Kansas, Morgan Morrill, Pomeroy, Ramsey, Sumner, Ten Eyck, Van Winkle and Wilson—26.

On this last subject, and to show the animus which impelled you, allow me to revert to what occurred on the 23d of February, 1864. The subject then under consideration was joint resolution, No. 23, to equalize the pay of soldiers, so that colored troops should not merely have the same pay, but also the same uniform, clothing, rations, pensions and medical and hospital attendance.

To this Garrett Davis offered as an amendment to the amendment the following—that first:

"All negroes and mulatoes, by whatever term designated, in the military service of the United States, be, and the same are hereby declared to be discharged from such service, and shall be disarmed as soon as practicable."

That, secondly, the pay for the services of such negroes and mulatoes shall go to their loyal masters, and not to themselves, and if any of them have been killed or maimed in the service of the United States, the value of the killed, and damages for the injured, shall be paid to said masters, or owners.

Here, indeed, was a proposition to try your mettle; all colored troops to be disarmed and discharged! No more of them, logically, to be permitted to enter our armies! Our resources of resistance to a wicked rebellion to be limited to the white population—on your favorite axiom no doubt, that this is a white man's government! Blood money, or damages, to the owner of the human chattel!

But the question being taken by yeas and nays, resulted—yeas 7, nays 80. Let me refresh your memory by giving you the names of the yeas:

"Yeas—Messrs. Buckalew, Carille, Davis Powell, Riddle, Saulsbury and Wright." The nays it is needless to recount. They were all true, loyal men, anxious for the success and weal of the republic.

Here, once more, are you found voting with the same Davis and Powell; but this time you were happily and appropriately reinforced by Saulsbury and Riddle, of Delaware—absentees on the other occasion. As to the gold question, I shall conclude by quoting—as altogether applicable to yourself—what Gen. J. K. Moorhead so well and truthfully said on the floor of the House, of and about a certain Democratic member, who, in that body, had proposed a similar amendment:

"To my utter surprise, and I think to the surprise of the House, he introduced the subject of a resolution, which he offered here, to increase the pay of the soldiers, and to pay them in gold, when he knew that the Treasury was unable to meet such a draft upon it."

Almost contemporaneously, the price of gold in the market was being doubled, if not trebled; and Fernando Wood, in Congress, was publicly chuckling over the fact that "the debt was rolling up at the rate of $1,000,000,000 per annum beyond the legitimate revenue of the country." Was this attempting to cripple the Treasury, or was it not? Not a petition from a single soldier asking that he should be paid in gold, and not in greenbacks, had ever been presented! It was exclusively reserved for yourself, Davis, Powell, and others who possessed the secrets of your cabal—to invent the gold and kindred schemes; and all the honers which such "week inventions" deserve are unhesitatingly bestowed upon you. Take them and wear them. Boast of them as you did at Lancaster. Truth, snail-footed, is after you; and a day of reckoning is fast coming. An attempt to destroy the finances of a country in a time of war, is as injurious as an endeavor to destroy its armies.

You are commonly regarded by your party as one of the ablest politicians in the State. Enjoyment of office for, say a quarter of a century, has surely afforded you ample means and sufficient leisure to become a shining light. But where so much of the people's money has been expended upon you, most certainly should you be able to point out, at the least, one great, distinguished public act which you have accomplished. It is said that your intellectual faculties have been cultivated at the expense of your heart. I cannot say. But this appears to be true from your silent acquiescence in the cold-blooded calumnies which, with your full knowledge, your backers, aiders, and abettors are heaping upon the innocent head of a brave soldier. Let me say with all proper respect, that General John F. Hartranft is more than your peer—in honesty, honnor, courage, and goodness of heart.

THE Hartranft cause is daily gaining ground. There is no mistake about a great reaction. The calumniators of Gen. Hartranft have had their day, and now appear good witnesses for the truth. The letter of Hon. D. N. White, and the speeches of Messrs. James L. Graham, Harry White and W. W. Ketchum are producing disastrous effects upon the Buckalew ranks. These truthful, honorable, well known citizens will be believed in preference to the enemies of Hartranft.

Gen. Ketchum upon Hartranft's chief competitor for the nomination of Governor, and he is a gentleman of the highest veracity. He proclaims everywhere that Hartranft is innocent of all the gross charges made against him, and is worthy of the support of every Republican.

How easily deluded must be that Republican who, with such evidence before him, will still think of listening to the vile traducers of our brave and competent candidate.—Pittsburg Times.

ONE thing seems certain, says the Pittsburg Mail, and that is that the laboring men of this State are determined to defeat Buckalew, although we question the correctness of the manner in which they propose to do it. It is true their candidate for Governor, Wm. P. Schell, Esq., will take from Buckalew a great many Democratic votes, and in Bedford county alone enough will vote for Schell to give Hartranft a majority. But it would be much more to the purpose if the Labor Reformers would unite with the Republicans, the party of the workingmen, and thus render the defeat of Buckalew more decisive. No friend of labor can vote for Buckalew without stultifying himself, for there is not a man in the State who has less sympathy for those who toil than the Democratic candidate for Governor.

GREELEY was stronger the day after the Baltimore Convention than he has ever been. He has been losing ground ever since. The fact is now quite clear to all intelligent observers that the adoption of a renegade Republican as a candidate for the Presidency by the Democratic party has proved a barren device. Greed of power, place and plunder on one side, and insane ambition on the other, has moulded the semblance of an organization into shape, but it is cemented by no love of honorable principle, and carries with it no elements of strength. Its overwhelming, utter and ignominous defeat can be safely predicted.

THE Boston Traveller says: "There is something grotesque about the idea of a coalition between the Liberal Republicans of Vermont and the Democrats of that State. It is like adding nothing to nothing, the result of which is nothing. It is the marriage of a eunuch and a mule. We suppose the 'parties' laugh at the business themselves, but it is all part of the play, as the delusion must be kept up in remote States that Greeleyism is raging in the Green Mountain State! Oh! You might as well look for pine-apples there in winter as for Democratic majorities there in the fall."

In pursuance of an act of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, entitled "An Act relating to the elections of this Commonwealth," passed the 2d day of June, 1869,

NOTICE is hereby given that the General Election will be opened between the hours of 6 and 7 o'clock, in the forenoon, and shall continue without interruption or adjournment until 7 o'clock in the evening, when the polls shall be closed.

And in and by the said act I am further directed to give notice "that every person except justices of the peace, who shall hold any office or appointment of profit and trust under the government of the United States, of this State, or of any city or incorporated district, whether a commissioned officer of otherwise a subordinate officer or agent who is or shall be employed under the Legislative or Executive or Judiciary department of this State, or of any incorporated district; and also that every member of Congress and of select or common council of any city, commissioners of any incorporated district, is by law incapable of holding or exercising at the same time the office or appointment of judge, inspector or clerk of any election of this Commonwealth, and that no inspector, judge, or any other officer of any election, shall be eligible to any office then to be voted for."

The inspectors and judge of the elections shall meet at their respective places appointed for holding the election in the district, to which they respectively belong before seven o'clock in the morning, and each of said inspectors shall appoint one clerk, who shall be a qualified voter of such district.

In case the person who shall have received the second highest number of votes for inspector shall not attend on the day of any election, then the person who shall have received the second highest number of votes for judge at the next preceding election shall act as inspector in his place. And in case the person who shall have received the highest number of votes for inspector shall not attend, the person elected judge shall appoint an inspector in his place; and in case the person elected judge shall not attend, then the inspector who received the highest number of votes shall appoint a Judge in his place; or if any vacancy shall continue in the board for the space of one hour after time fixed by law for the opening of the election, the qualified voters of the township, ward, or district for which such officers shall have been elected, present at such election, shall elect one of their number to fill such vacancy.

It shall be the duty of the several assessors of each district to attend at the place of holding every general, special or township election, during the whole time said election is kept open, for the purpose of giving information to the inspectors and judges when called on, in relation to the right of any person assessed by them to vote at such election, or such other matters in relation to the assessments of voters as the said inspectors or either of them shall from time to time require.

No person shall be permitted to vote at any election, as aforesaid, other than a white freemen of the age of twenty-one years or more, who shall have resided in the State at least one year, and in the election district where he offers his vote at least ten days immediately preceding such election, and within two years paid a State or county tax, which shall have been assessed at least ten days immediately preceding such election, and within two years paid a State or county tax which shall have been assessed at least ten days before the election. But a citizen of the United States who has previously been a qualified voter of this State and removed therefrom and returned, and who shall have resided in the election district and paid taxes as aforesaid, shall be entitled to vote after residing in the State six months: Provided, That the white freemen, citizens of the United States, between twenty-one and twenty-two years, who have resided in an election district as aforesaid, shall be entitled to vote, although they shall not have paid taxes.

No person shall be permitted to vote whose name is not contained in the list of taxable inhabitants furnished by the commissioners, unless first, he produce a receipt for the payment within two years of a State or County tax assessed agreeably to the Constitution, and gives satisfactory evidence either on his oath or affirmation, or the oath or affirmation of another, that he has paid such a tax, or on failure to produce a receipt, shall make oath to the payment thereof. Second, if he claim the right to vote by being an elector between the age of twenty-one and twenty-two years, he shall depose on oath or affirmation that he has resided in this State at least one year next before his application, and make such proof of residence in the district as is required by this act, and that he does verily believe from the account given him, that he is of age aforesaid, and such other evidence as is required by this act; whereupon the name of the person thus admitted to vote shall be inserted in the alphabetical list by the inspectors, and a note made opposite thereto by writing the word "tax," if he shall be admitted to vote by reason of having paid tax; or the word "age," if he shall be admitted to vote by reason of such age, shall be called out to the clerks, who shall make the like notes on the list of voters kept by them.

In all cases where the name of the person claiming to vote is found on the list furnished by the commissioners and assessor, or his right to vote, whether found thereon or not, is objected to by any qualified citizen, it shall be the duty of the inspectors to examine such person on oath as to his qualifications, and if he claims to have resided in the State for one year or more his oath shall be sufficient proof thereof, but shall make proof by at least one competent witness, who shall be a qualified elector, that he has resided in the district for more than ten days next immediately preceding such election, and shall also himself swear that his bona fide residence, in pursuance of his lawful calling, is in said district, and that he did not remove into said district for the purpose of voting therein.

Every person qualified as aforesaid, and who shall make due proof, if required, of the residence and payment of taxes as aforesaid, shall be admitted to vote in the township, ward, or district in which he shall reside.

If any person shall prevent or attempt to prevent any officer of any election under this act from holding such election, or use or threaten any violence to any such officer, or shall interrupt or improperly interfere with him in the execution of his duty, or shall block up the window or avenue to any window where the same may be holding, or shall riotously disturb the peace at such election, or shall use any intimidating threats, force or violence, with design to influence unduly or overawe any elector, or to prevent him from voting or to restrain the freedom of choice, such persons, on conviction, shall be fined in any sum not exceeding five hundred dollars, and imprisoned for any time not less than three nor more than twelve months, and if it shall be shown to Court, where the trial of such offence shall be had, that the person so offending was not a resident of the city, ward, district or township where the offence was committed, and not entitled to vote therein, then on conviction he shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars, and be imprisoned not less than six months nor more than two years.

If any person, not by law qualified, shall fraudulently vote at any election of this Commonwealth, or being otherwise qualified shall vote out of his proper district, if any person knowing the want of such qualification, shall aid or procure such person to vote, the person offending, shall on conviction be fined in any sum not exceeding two hundred dollars, and be imprisoned in any term not exceeding three months.

If any one shall vote at more than one election district, or otherwise fraudulently vote more than once on the same day, or shall fraudulently told and deliver to the inspector two tickets together, with the intent illegally to vote, or who shall procure another to do so, he or they offending, shall on conviction, be fined in any sum not less than fifty nor more than five hundred dollars, and be imprisoned for a term not less than three nor more than twelve months.

If any person not qualified to vote in this Commonwealth agreeably to law (except the sons of qualified citizens), shall appear at any place of election for the purpose of influencing the citizens qualified to vote, he shall on conviction forfeit and pay any sum not exceeding one hundred dollars for every such offence and be imprisoned for any term not exceeding three months.

MUTUAL
Fire Insurance.

The Mutual Plan guarantees to the mutually insured the greatest security for the least possible cost. The premium notes are the capital. On this no dividends are paid to the stockholders, but it is simply assessed to pay deficiencies arising after the payment of losses and expenses, which in the COLUMBIA INSURANCE COMPANY, during the total 12¼ years of its existence, have averaged but 6¼ per centum upon the premium note, being lower than the rates paid in the best solvent stock companies during the same period of time. In insuring at stock rates, the insured must pronounce to himself that he pays every year enough—1st. To form an accumulated fund for emergencies; 2d. To pay large dividends to the capital invested in the Company; 3d. Runs the risk of a "Chicago fire" coming and whipping his Company out of existence. In a Mutual Company he keeps his own reserve in hand until needed, and pays no dividend to capitalists. The mutually insured, being themselves the capitalists, look after the business, its character and its agents in all places, thus protecting each other. For Insurances or Agencies, address

Greeley Firing the Ku-Klux.

The North Carolina correspondent of the New York Tribune, addressing that paper before the recent election, wrote these remarkable and suggestive words:

"The Democrats of the South, if Horace Greeley is elected, will be the worst disappointed set of men you ever saw. I don't believe Mr. Greeley has sold out to them, as they think he has, and there's sure to be a fight unless these secessionists down here are allowed to manage him. You don't and can't know them as we do; but mind what I tell you, this whole country will be over run with Ku-Klux within three months after Greeley's inauguration. Then, if he undertakes to suppress disorder there'll be such a howl as this country never heard."

This, mind you, says the Albany Journal, is from no Republican paper—it comes from no opponent of Mr. Greeley. On the contrary, it is taken from the columns of his own personal organ, written by his own friend, sent to report in his own interest. How it was ever admitted into the Tribune—a paper which now perverts everything to Mr. Greeley's interest—is a mystery, but there it is, with all its significance, which cannot fail to impress every reader.

The correspondent, it is to be observed, gives what he heard from the people. With his own faith in Mr. Greeley, he does not believe Mr. Greeley has sold out to the Ku-Klux and the reactionary elements of the South. But they believe he has, and that kindles all their old passions. Whatever policy Mr. Greeley might contemplate, his election would unquestionably be the signal for violent outbreaks and revolutionary disturbances. His supporters urge his election as the way to peace. But the truth is, it would be the severest blow to peace, and would light the torch of conflict. We have it upon the authority of the Tribune's correspondent, and it is not for the Tribune to deny it. Mr. Greeley, it will be remembered, himself made a tour through the South last year, and this is what he wrote in the Tribune when he returned:

"The editor of this journal, throughout his recent southwestern journey, endeavored to enlarge his knowledge and correct his preconceptions with regard to the people of the States he visited, their political differences, industry their social conduct * * Thousands at the North were earnestly and properly asking: 'Are the alleged Ku-Klux outrages sober realities or partisan falsehoods and gross exaggerations? Is it true that a part of the carpet-baggers are rapacious rascals, intent mainly on filling their own pockets?" He answered both these questions in the affirmative. There have been many Ku Klux. * * Now, this editor, in the speech aforesaid, had based his conviction that Ku-Klux outrages were not only perpetrated, but were INDICTED BY HATE AND DREAD OF REPUBLICAN ASCENDANCY, not by personal or private consideration, upon the official returns of the registration of votes in successive elections in Louisiana.

"The Republicans uniformly testify that there was AN ORGANIZED AND ARMED CONSPIRACY, whereby they, and especially the blacks, were deterred from voting—that offering to vote would have cost them their lives—that the Democrats were determined to carry the State for Seymour, and did carry it, by SYSTEMATIC TERRORISM, against which the poor and humble durst not contend. * * Now, the Ku-Klux organization may be active in this locality and dormant in that—may seem dead to day—AND BE REVIVED TO-MORROW—BUT THE KU-KLUX SPIRIT STILL LIVES AT THE SOUTH AND IS VERY FORMIDABLE."

This is the personal testimony of Mr. Greeley within a year, after having made a tour through the South.—He declares that the spirit of the Ku-Klux still lives at the South—that though it may seem dead to day, it will be revived to-morrow. The correspondent of the Tribune declares as the result of his observations that the thing which will revive it is the election of Mr. Greeley to the Presidency. Could the country have a more impressive warning against risking such a calamity?

REPUBLICAN STATE PLATFORM.

Below will be found the Resolutions adopted by the convention which placed in nomination Gen John F. Hartranft, Hon. Ulysses Mercur, Gen. Harrison Allen and the entire State Ticket. The Resolutions were written by that clear headed and efficient Republican—Russel Errett, Esq., and have the true ring. Republicans, workingmen and all honest Democrats, can safely stand upon this platform. Let them be carried out in good faith and there need be no fears entertained in regard to the salvation and perpetuity of the government either State or national:

1. That we reaffirm our devotion to the principles of the Republican party, and our belief that the continued existence of that party is necessary to the maintenance and success of those principles. The grand and fundamental idea of the equality of all men in political rights is not professed by any other party, and can be sustained faithfully only by those who are sincerely committed to it.

2. That the adoption of the thirteenth, fourteenth and fifteenth amendments to the Constitution of the United States has not been sufficiently acquiesced in by all to render certain and secure their permanent incorporation in that instrument, and hence the administration of the government can safely be entrusted only to that party which is heartily, and beyond question, committed to them, and the policy necessary to put them into successful operation.

2. That we are now, more than ever, called to sustain the policy of national protection to American industry. If the laborer is worthy of his hire, and a fair day's work entitles the worker to a fair day's pay, we must continue to throw the protecting arm of the government around those who toil for their daily bread. The protective policy alone makes labor contented and capital secure. It renders employment certain, and pay ample and satisfactory; whilst free trade means that our laborers and mechanics must either work for lower wages or that our factories should be closed through foreign competition, and the workingmen of the country deprived of employment.

4. That the public lands belong to the people, and should be reserved for the people. We, therefore, pronounce most decidedly against any further appropriation of the public lands in behalf of corporations or individuals. All lands not sold according to law should be open to preemption and actual settlement.

5. That we demand a continued adherence to the policy hitherto pursued, under Republican auspices, in our State and in the nation, of a steady and gradual reduction of the public debt. The interests of the people require that the most rigid economy should be practiced in the administration of both the Nation and the State governments, and that taxes should be reduced in both as rapidly as is consistent with the honorable maintenance of the public credit, and the certain extinguishment of all the public debt.

6. That we are earnestly in favor of the earliest possible removal of the duties on tea and coffee, and urge the prompt passage of the bill for that purpose now before Congress.

7. That we heartily approve of the act of Gen. Grant in giving a trial to the plan of civil service reform. We demand that the plan, or any other that may be substituted in its place as better, shall have a fair and unembarrassed trial, that every effort shall be made to secure competent men for public service, and that honesty and incorruptibility shall be deemed qualifications as essential as competency and intelligence.

8. That the Republican party has given full evidence during the past eleven years of its ability to administer the government honestly, faithfully and successfully. It has, within that time, maintained the honor of our National flag at home and abroad; preserved the Union from disruption and restored it in its integrity; secured to all classes and conditions of men the rights given to them by their Maker, and having proclaimed liberty throughout all the land, unto all the inhabitants thereof, has given to that proclamation the full effect to which it was entitled; and we therefore, in its name, claim from the people a continuance of their confidence, and fearlessly challenge their scrutiny into its acts.

9. That we point with pride to the record of Gen. Grant's administration of the National Government. Not only has the weight of internal taxation been almost wholly removed from the people's shoulders, but three hundred millions of the national debt have been paid off—a result never before attained by any other people under like circumstances, and for which we are indebted to the rigid honesty, strict economy and sterling integrity which the President has brought to the administration of a national affairs.

10. That we present his name for renomination to the Presidency, confident that the people will again rally to the support of the man who so nobly fought their battles; who, under the guidance through its struggle to maintain its existence, and who has since so successfully administered the affairs of the government as to command general admiration, at home and abroad.

11. That we will stand by the government in the foreign policy so firmly marked out and adhered to by President Grant. The honor of the nation, we feel, is safe in his hands, and the flag under which he never suffered defeat, will not be dishonored while he is kept in the front.

12. That we congratulate the people of Pennsylvania on the final accomplishment of the call for a convention to revise and amend the Constitution of the State and we earnestly urge upon our friends to see that delegates are chosen in their respective districts committed to the policy of incorporating in that instrument a clear and decisive prohibition of special legislation.

13 That we hereby declare our opposition to every effort to withdraw from the sinking fund of the Commonwealth, either by substitution, exchange or otherwise, any of the bonds, securities or moneys now pledged to it, and through it to the payment of the public debt of the Commonwealth, and our inflexible determination to preserve the same, inviolably, for the fulfillment of the Commonwealth's obligations.

14. That the oil producing, mining, lumbering and manufacturing interest of the State require protection from the efforts of dangerous combinations, and that such laws should be enacted by the General Assembly of this Commonwealth as will protect said interest, both in their development and the transportation of their productions to market.

15. That the thanks of our party are due to Governor John W. Geary, under whose lead our principles have twice been successfully vindicated in Pennsylvania; the State debt has been reduced during his administration; our soldiers orphans have been carefully cherished and educated; and our laws have been efficiently and wisely enforced. Under the necessity of parting with him as Governor, in conformity with the Constitution of the State, Governor Geary carries with him in his retirement the heartfelt wishes of its people for his future prosperity and happiness.

16. That we present with peculiar pride and especial confidence of their success, the names of Gen. John F. Hartranft for Governor, Ulysses Mercur for Supreme Judge, Gen. Harrison Allen for Auditor General, and the gentlemen this day named for delegates at large to the Constitutional Convention. They are all men worthy of an active and ardent support at the hands of the Republican party, and we call upon our friends throughout the State to rally as one man to secure their triumphant election.

17. That the President of this Convention, in connection with the candidates this day nominated for State officers, appoint the chairman and one Secretary of the State Central Committee, and that the State Committee be made up on the basis adopted last year, and the two years preceding.

Hoofland's German Bitters.

A Bitters without Alcohol or Spirits of any kind.

Is different from all others. It is composed of the pure Juices, or VITAL PRINCIPLE OF ROOTS, HERBS, and BARKS, (or, as medicinally termed, Extracts,) the worthless or inert portions of the ingredients not being used. Therefore in one Bottle of this Bitters there is contained as much medicinal virtue as will be found in several gallons or ordinary mixtures. The Roots, &c., used in this Bitters are grown in Germany, their vital principles extracted in that country by a scientific Chemist, and forwarded to the manufactory in this city, when they compounded and bottled. Containing no spirituous ingredients, this Bitters is free from the objections urged against all others: no desire for stimulants can be induced from their use, they cannot make drunkards, and cannot under any circumstances, have any but a beneficial effect.

Hoofland's German Tonic,

Was compounded for those not inclined to extreme bitters, and is intended for use in cases when some alcoholic stimulant is required in connection with the Tonic properties of the Bitters. Each bottle of the tonic contains one bottle of the Bitters, combined with pure SANTA CRUZ RUM, and flavored in such a manner that the extreme bitterness of the bitters is overcome forming a preparation highly agreeable and pleasant to the palate, and containing the medicinal virtues of the Bitters. The price of the Tonic is $1,50 per Bottle, which many persons think too high. They must take into consideration that the stimulant used is guaranteed to be of a pure quality. A poor article could be furnished at a cheaper price, but is it not better to pay a little more and have a good article! A medicinal preparation should contain none but the best ingredients; and they who expect to obtain a cheap compound, and be benefittad by it, will most certainly be cheated.

Who would ask for more Dignified or Stronger Testimony?

HON. GEORGE W. WOODWARD, formerly Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania at present Member of Congress from Pennsylvania, writes:

PHILADELPHIA, March 16, 1871.

I find "Hoofland's German Bitters" is a good tonic, useful in diseases of the digestive organs, and of great benefit in case of debility and want of nervous action in the system. Yours, truly,
GEO. W. WOODWARD.

HON, JAS. THOMPSON, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania,

PHILADELPHIA, April 28, 1867.

I consider "Hoofland's German Bitters" a valuable medicine in case of attacks of indigestion or Dyspepsia. I can certify this from my own experience of it.

Yours, with respect, JAS. THOMPSON.

PHILADELPHIA, June 1, 1868.

I have found by experience that "Hoofland's German Bitters" is a very good tonic, relieving dyspeptic symptoms almost directly.
GEORGE SHARSWOOD

HON. JAS. M. WOOD, Ex-Mayor of Williamsport, Pa.

I take great pleasure in recommending "Hoofland's German Tonic" to any one who may be afflicted with Dyspepsia. I had the Dyspepsia so badly it was impossible to keep any food on my stomach, and I became so weak, as not to be able to walk half a mile. Two bottles of Tonic effected a perfect cure. JAMES M. WOOD.

REMEMBER
AND
HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC,
Will Cure every Case of
MARASMUS,
Or Wasting away of the Body.
HOOFLAND'S GERMAN REMEDIES

Are the medicines you require to purify the Blood, excite the torpid Liver to healthy action, and to enable you to pass safely through any hardships or exposure.

DR. HOOFLAND'S
PODOPHYLLIN,
Or Substitue for Mercury Pills.
TWO PILLS A DOSE.
The Most Powerful, Yet Innocent Vegetable Cathartic Known.

It is not necessary to take a handful of these Pills to produce the desired effect; two of them act quickly and powerfully, cleansing the Liver, Stomach and Bowels all impurities. The principal ingredient is Podophyllin, or the Alcoholic Extract of Mandrake, which is by many times more powerful, acting and searching than the Mandrake itself. Its peculiar action is upon the Liver, cleaning it speedily from all obstructions, with all the power of Mercury, yet free from the injurious results attached to the use of that mineral.

For all diseases, in which the use of a cathartic is indicated, these pills will give entire satisfaction in every case. They NEVER FAIL.

In cases of Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia and extreme costiveness, Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters or Tonic should be used in connection with the Pills. The tonic effect of the Bitters or Tonic builds up the system. The Bitters or Tonic purifies the Blood, strengthens the Nerves, REGULATES the Liver, and gives strength, energy and vigor.

Keep your Bowels active with the Pills, and tone up the system with Bitters or Tonic, and no disease can retain its hold, or ever assail you.

Recollect that it is DR. HOOFLAND'S GERMAN REMEDIES that are so universally used and highly recommended; and do not allow the Druggist to induce you to take anything else that he may say is just as good, because he makes a larger profit on it. These Remedies will be sent by Express to any locality, upon application to the PRINCIPAL OFFICE, at the GERMAN MEDICINE STORE, 631 Arch St., Philadelphia.

THE REPUBLICAN FOR THE CAMPAIGN. CLUBS! CLUBS!

We are now about commencing another great battle for the salvation of the Union, and perpetuity of free Government, of Republican Institutions. We have the same enemy to contend against, the same party and faction that trampled the old Flag—the Star Spangled Banner, under their feet in 1861, and that fired upon Fort Sumpter. We punished them then for their treason, we must not permit them now, since they have assumed another shape, to secure through the ballot box, what they failed to secure through four years of bloody war—the dissolution of the Union, and the formation of a Southern Confederacy.

"Eternal vigilance is the price of Liberty." We must be active.

We must be watchful and ever on the alert. We must circulate papers and documents in order that every voter may fully understand the issues and vote intelligently in the approaching fall elections.

To this end we offer the BELLEFONTE REPUBLICAN from the 1st of August to the 1st day of December, 1872—FOUR MONTHS—for 60 cents to single subscribers, or to clubs of FIVE, TEN, TWENTY or more at 50 cents per copy.

Now, let our active energetic friends bestir themselves and send in LARGE CLUBS from every township and Borough in the county. IN EVERY CASE THE MONEY MUST ACCOMPANY THE ORDER. Get up the clubs. Send in the names and money.

THE Champion, of Atchison, Kan., says there has never before been in any State such an uprising of the people and such a magnificent demonstration of public sentiment as in Kansas during the past ten days, and especially during the past four days. * * * * Ten days ago we thought it possible that Grant might not have over 10,000 or 12,000 majority in Kansas, if that many. Now we are confident that the Republican majority in this State will not fall below 25,000, and we shall not be surprised if it reaches 30,000. Kansas is going to be, as of old, the "Banner Republican State" of the Union.

VINEGAR BITTERS

VEGETABLE — FREE FROM — ALCOHOL

PURELY — CALIFORNIA — D. WALKER'S

VINEGAR BITTERS

Vinegar Bitters are not a vile Fancy Drink, made of Poor Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits and Refuse Liquors, doctored, spiced, and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Appetizers," "Restorers," &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true Medicine, made from the native roots and herbs of California, free from all Alcoholic Stimulants. They are the Great Blood Purifier and a Life-giving Principle, a Perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the System, carrying off all poisonous matter and restoring the blood to a healthy condition, enriching it, refreshing and invigorating both mind and body. They are easy of administration, prompt in their action, certain in their results, safe and reliable in all forms of disease.

No Person can take these Bitters according to directions, and remain long un well, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and the vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair.

Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offsprings of Dyspepsia. In these complaints it has no equal, and one bottle will prove a better guarantee of its merits than a lengthy advertisement.

For Female Complaints, in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood, or the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters display so decided an influence that a marked improvement is soon perceptible.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

They are a Gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, possessing also the peculiar merit of acting as a powerful agent in relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver and Visceral Organs and in Bilious Diseases.

For Skin Diseases, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt-Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-worms, Scald-Head, Sore Eyes Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin, of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters. One bottle in such cases will convince the most incredulous of their curative effects.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions, or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul; your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

Grateful Thousands proclaim VINEGAR BITTERS the most wonderful Invigorant that ever sustained the sinking system.

Pin, Tape, and other Worms, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. Says a distinguished physiologist: There is scarcely an individual on the face of the earth whose body is exempt from the presence of worms. It is not upon the healthy elements of the body that worms exist, but upon the diseased humors and slimy deposits that breed these living monsters of disease. No system of medicine, no vermifuges, no anthelmintics, will free the system from worms like these Bitters.

Mechanical Diseases.—Persons engaged in Paints and Minerals, such as Plumbers, Typesetters, Gold-beaters, and Miners, as they advance in life, are subject to paralysis of the Bowels. To guard against this, take a dose of WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS twice a week.

Bilious, Remittent, and Intermittent Fevers, which are so prevalent in the valleys of our great rivers throughout the United States, especially those of the Mississippi, Ohio, Missouri, Illinois, Tennessee, Cumberland, Arkansas, Red, Colorado, Brazos, Rio Grande, Pearl, Alabama, Mobile, Savannah, Roanoke, James, and many others, with their vast tributaries, throughout our entire country during the Summer and Autumn, and remarkably so during seasons of unusual heat and dryness, are invariably accompanied by extensive derangements of the stomach and liver, and other abdominal viscera. In their treatment, a purgative, exerting a powerful influence upon these various organs, is essentially necessary. There is no cathartic for the purpose equal to DR. J. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS, as they will speedily remove the dark-colored vitiated matter with which the bowels are loaded, at the same time stimulating the secretions of the liver, and generally restoring the healthy functions of the digestive organs.

Scrofula, or King's Evil, White Swellings, Ulcers, Erysipelas, Swelled neck, Goitre, Scrofulous Inflammations, Indolent Inflammations, Mercurial Affections, Old Sores, Eruptions of the Skin, Sore Eyes, etc., etc. In these as in all other constitutional Diseases, WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS have shown their great curative powers in the most obstinate and intractable cases.

Dr. Walker's California Vinegar Bitters act on all these cases in a similar manner. By purifying the Blood they remove the cause, and by resolving away the effects of the inflammation (the tubercular deposits) the affected parts receive health, and a permanent cure is effected.

The properties of DR. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS are Aperient, Diaphoretic, Carminative, Nutritious, Laxative, Diuretic, Sedative, Counter-Irritant, Sedorific, Alterative, and Anti-Bilious.

The Aperient and mild Laxative properties of DR. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS are the best safe-guard in cases of erysipelas and malignant fevers, their balsamic, healing, and soothing properties protect the humors of the fauces. Their Sedative properties allay pain in the nervous system, stomach, and bowels, either from inflammation, wind, colic, cramps, etc.

Fortify the body against disease by purifying all its fluids with VINEGAR BITTERS. No epidemic can take hold of a system thus fore-armed.

Directions.—Take of the Bitters on going to bed at night from a half to one and one-half wine-glassfull. Eat good nourishing food, such as beef-steak, mutton chop, venison, roast beef, and vegetables, and take out-door exercise. They are composed of purely vegetable ingredients, and contain no spirit.

GRANT, WILSON AND HARTRANFT CLUB.—Let it be positively undestood that the Grant, Wilson and Hartranft Club meets regularly, every Saturday evening, at the WIGWAM, precisely at 8 o'clock. The Executive Committee has arranged a programme for the series of meetings during the campaign, that can't help but interest, entertain and instruct. So, let the citizens flock to the Wigwam on each Saturday evening, from this time until after the Presidential election, where the political canvass will be discussed and defined by able speakers.

REPUBLICAN MEETING.—A Republican meeting was held in the Court House, on Wednesday evening last, the 28th ult. Owing to the fact of Gen. C. A. Albright having to leave on the 8:15 P. M. train, the meeting was called at seven o'clock.

The meeting was called to order by E. M. Blanchard, Esq., Chairman of county Committee, and the following organization effected: President, John Irwin, Jr., Vice Presidents, Thomas McEwen, James Armor, Samuel Stover and John P. Dehaas; Secretaries, James H. Rankin, Esq., of Bellefonte, and George H. Zeigler, Esq., of Philipsburg. The Liberty Band entertained the audience while assembling, by discoursing, in a fine manner, some good national airs.—The house being well filled, Gen. Chas. A. Albright was introduced, who delivered himself of an able and most telling speech. He showed clearly which is the right and which the wrong side; which the party of loyalty, and which the party of disloyalty; which the party of honesty and economy in the administraton of the Government, and which the party of corruption and extravagance.—He also showed that Mr. Buckalew, the Democratic candidate for Governor, had much to do with rebel agents, and was a defender of the secret orders organized in Fishing Creek and elsewhere throughout the State, the sworn object of which was to aid the rebellion by opposing the draft. Also, that Mr. Buckalew in his great speech which he offers to the public as a full defence of his public record, explains three of his votes made while in the United States Senate, out of one hundred and fifty-three that he did make. So that Buckalew on his own showing, thinks he voted right three times out of a hundred and fifty-three. The speech was a fine effort, and the speaker frequently interrupted by applause.

Capt. A. W. Norris, of Philadelphia, was next introduced, and with good effect, reviewed the administration of Gen. Grant and his personal qualifications, showing his administration to be a success, and him to be eminently qualified in every particular for the Chief Magistracy of this Nation. He also showed Gen. Hantraft, our candidate for Governor, not only to have been an able, gallant and brave soldier, but a most efficient, honest and capable officer. The Captain's speech was well received and he commanded profound attention while speaking.

Jas. Milliken, Esq., of Bellefonte was next called for, and in a neat and clear manner, for about twenty minutes, discussed the financial interests of the country, and the bearing that the present political canvass would have on the same. Showing that prosperity, certainty and stability in our finances and business interests of our country could only be secured and preserved by Gen. Grant's re-election.

Each speech was sandwiched by the band discoursing a National air, which added to the interest of the meeting.—The meetng was an auspicious one, and the feeling manifested, indicated that Republicanism is yet alive, active, earnest and vigorous.

DEMOCRATIC MEETING.—The Democratic meeting held in the Court House, on Tuesday evening, the 27th ult., was not the most enthusiastic political gathering that was ever known to assemble, in the heart of Centre county Democracy. The house was averagely well filled, and showed some signs of a little life before speaking begun. The first speaker was Hon. Chas. A. Buckalew, Democratic candidate for Governor, who delivered himself of a very deliberate effort that fell like a wet blanket on his auditors, and smothered to death the little spark of enthusiasm that seemed to exist at the opening of the meeting.

The burden of his speech was a weak defense of the extravagance of the committee that sat in the contested election case of Senators Gray and McClure.—Notwithstanding his explanation, the bold fact yet remained that, that contested election case cost the taxpayers of Pennsylvania several thousand dollars more than any experience they have had before in that line. The majority of the Committee were Democrats, of which C. A. Buckalew was chief.

He then, in an apologetic manner, referred to his public record, as explained and defended by him in a certain speech he got off some time ago at Lancaster, which he would not here repeat, as that speech had been printed for the benefit of all readers. Said speech explains three votes out of a hundred and fifty-three that he cast while in the United States Senate, and leaves the reader in grave doubt whether even those three votes were cast in favor of our Government, Loyalty and Union, or whether they were not more in the interest of Rebellion and Treason. In regard to his prospects of being elected, he did not express himself as over sanguine, and assigned as a reason for his doubts, that Philadelphia would probably give, what he called the "Ring candidate"—meaning Hartranft—"some eight or ten thousand majority; that all the roughs, slums and slough of Philadelphia would vote for Hartranft."

Who are the "roughs, slums and slough" of Philadelphia's society to whom he referred? Is it her honest thousands of hardy, industrious sons of toil? of whom she can boast more than any other city in the United States. A city whose manufactories are more extensive than those of any other city in the land, will cast her labor vote, Buckalew says, for John F. Hartranft, and ten thousand against him. Buckalew's aristocratic proclivities will crop out.—He will bid for aristocratic votes by making invidious distinctions against the laborer and mechanic—the "slough, and slum of society" as he would call them.

But who could expect any other idea to be entertained of the working men, by Buckalew, a man who has been pro-slavery all his life, and whose sympathies for the peculiar institution were so strong as to justify him in opposing every measure of the Government put forth to crush a slaveocratic rebellion.

Hon. W. A. Wallace followed in a vivacious speech, showing that the Democracy took Greeley, not from choice, but yielded gracefully by force of circumstances; that the design of the Democracy was again to be restored to power; that Greeley, as a Democratic President, could be moulded to suit Democratic ideas, and, in short, would be a subservient tool in their hands.

After him, John H. Orvis, Esq., was called upon, and he delivered himself of a few things in his usual smooth style, with a view of encouraging the Democracy of Centre to steadfastness and harmony.

The meeting adjourned, and an air of disappointment was strongly depicted on the countenances of the Democracy, the traces of which were quite visible for two or three days afterwards.

VALUABLE HORSE.—We learn that Mr. Jno. P. Dehass of Curtin township sold a horse a few days ago—blooded, morman stock four years old for $700. This is the highest price, we believe that has been paid for years in this county for a horse. Mr. Debass deserves the thanks of the farmers of Centre county for the enterprise he has manifested in improving the stock in the county both in horses and cattle. He is a man of determination and go-aheaditiveness, and has been to Curtin township in building up and developeing the interests of Curtin township what Peter Herdic has been to Williamsport. Long live Jno. P. Dehass.

ATTENTION, LUMBERMEN AND FARMERS.—John Powers is receiving his Fall stock of Boots and Shoes, among which will be found "The Star Boot," without doubt the best boot ever brought to this place. Call in, one and all, and see for yourselves. He offers to sell the "Lock Haven French Calf Boot" for $4.50, and "Prince Alexis" high-cut Galter for $2.75. Ladies wear and all else correspondingly cheap. Call in, and you will find that John makes good all he says.

"How's this for low."

JNO. F. POTTER, Dist. Att'y.

THE Entertainments given in Reynolds Opera House, on Thursday and Friday evenings last, by that thoroughly cosmopolitan trio known as the Coleman Sisters, were, beyond cavil, the finest artistic and genuinely superior performances we have witnessed these many days. These children are undeniably the finest juvenile characterl delineators traveling. In every character they assume, we readily perceive the result of genius trained, and talents cultivated. Of the many hundreds who flock to hear and see them, we know of none but sound their praises, and certainly, with justice. There is a high nich in the Temple of histrionic fame within the reach of these precocious prodigies of the American stage.

HOW TO GO WEST.—This is an enquiry which every one should have truthfully answered before he starts on his journey, and a little care taken in examination of Routes will in many cases save much trouble, time and money.

The "C., B. & Q. R. R.," running from Chicago, through Galesburg to Burlington, and the "I., B. & W. Route," running from Indianapolis, through Bloomington to Burlington, have achieved a splendid reputation in the last two years as the leading Passenger Routes to the West. At Burlington they connect with the B. & M. R. R. and from the great Burlington Route, which runs direct through Southern Iowa to Nebraska and Kansas, with close connections to California and the Territories; and passengers starting from Centre County, on their way westward, cannot do better than to take the BURLINGTON ROUTE.

"This Line has published a pamphlet called "How to go West," which contains much valuable information; a large correct map of the Great West, which can be obtained free of charge by addressing the General Passenger Agent B. & M. R. R., Burlington, Iowa. no-28-4-mo.

[For the REPUBLICAN.]

SIR:—It is not often we are called upon to notice a much sadder accident than the one occuring at Wayne Station on the P. & E. R. R., on Sunday during the progress of the West Branch Camp Meeting.

It appears that as the Lock Haven train was leaving the depot three cars became detached by some means and drifted back into the rear end of the Williamsport train which was standing on the track preparing to leave. Mr. Samuel Sweely, of the latter place seeing the cars coming sprang on the hind car of the Williamsport train, for the purpose of rescuing his wife who was on the car, but ere he could reach the door, the trains came together catching him between them and crushing his body horribly. He died in a few hours after, leaving a wife and four children to mourn his loss. We make no comments, merely referring the reader to the "Ten Commandments." G. L. M.

FOR SALE.—The subscriber offers for sale, stock, good-will and fixtures of Harness Shop and House Furnishing Goods of his establishment, No. 45, Main St., Lock Haven, Pa., one of the best business points west of Phila. for the trade. I am not a harness maker, and wish to give my attention to some other business. This is a rare chance, seldom offered, being one of the best business stands in the city, and centrally located. Stock will be reduced eight hundred dollars if desired by the purchaser.

☞BY ONE OF THE LEADING PHYSICIANS of Philadelphia city.—A careful examination of mortuary statistics establishes the fact that one adult person out of every six dies of consumption, and so alarmingly is this disease gaining the ascendancy over all other ills to which flesh is heir, that its approach to one's immediate circle is regarded with perfect horror. If you will carefully examine the records of Materia Medica you will invariably discover that the general want of success in treating diseases has not been a deficiency of pathological knowledge of the functions affected, but of a suitable compound that would act upon the disease and all the sympathetic affections.

This want has at last been met in the Bitter Wine of Iron, prepared by the celebrated Dr. E. F. Kunzle, No 259 North Ninth street, Philadelphia. This excellent compound can be taken by persons with the most delicate stomach without any debilitating effect always giving strength and largely increasing the nervous energy of the patient. In all cases of pulmonary complaints it is admirably adapted to relieve the severity of the symptoms in the advanced stages of the disease, or to arrest it in its incipiency. If you want something that will give you strength, a good appetite, build up your constitution, and in place of moroseness and a lack of energy, give you a brisk and vigorous feeling, try Kunkel's Bitter Wine of Iron. It has already received the meed of praise from thousands who have tested its virtues, and for many years maintained its reputation with unfaded popularity.

Price $1 per bottle. E. F. KUNKEL, Sole Proprietor, No. 259 North Ninth street, below Vine, Philadelphia.
